

Icons located in the upper left corner. Use the different selections to view the legend, filter out data, or change the background map.

Clicking on points on the map will generate pop-ups for each specific point, providing additional information.

Color coding spots based on pollution indicator results.