

Pretend that you are one of the objects below. Write a story about how you got through the storm drain and into a body of water.

-Are you creating water pollution?

-What could you do differently to stop the water pollution?

---

---

---

---

